Ellen joined Kidmans Partners in 2012 following the merger with Taylors Partners. As a Chartered Accountant, she provides professional taxation and accounting services to a diverse range of clients, drawing on more than 15 years of experience in public practice.

She enjoys building long-term relationships with clients and working collaboratively with colleagues to deliver practical and innovative solutions. Ellen values the supportive and forward-thinking culture at Kidmans Partners and is committed to helping clients achieve their financial goals.

Outside of work, Ellen enjoys Korean dramas and fashion. She is attending sewing classes with a goal of designing traditional Korean dresses (hanbok).
