Nathan joined Kidmans Partners in July 2014 following a merge with his previous firm Pacific East Coast Accounting. Nathan has worked in public practice since 1998. He enjoys working collaboratively with clients to ensure a personalised and comprehensive service, that is proactive and tailored to meet the needs; short and long-term goals; and compliance obligations of individuals and their businesses. Nathan provides taxation, accounting and business services to individual and business clients across diverse sectors and industries. He prides himself on being approachable, providing creditable and trustworthy advice in a timely manner whilst fostering trust and mutual respect.

In his leisure Nathan enjoys spending quality time with his wife, Andrea and their two children. He is an avid sports fan and on weekends you will find him in his local community playing lacrosse. Additionally, Nathan represented Australia in Lacrosse at the World Championships in 2006 in Toronto and again in 2014 in Denver.
